Moving on

In lawyer news, Assistant U.S. Attorney Ken Lipman is leaving Fort Lauderdale to join a private practice in Boca Raton.

Lipman, who had stints in the U.S. Attorney's Office in Dade and Palm Beach before coming to Fort Lauderdale, has rung up an impressive record as a prosecutor.

His statistics include winning 40 of 41 jury trials, primarily drug cases and white-collar crime.

The 32-year-old attorney will be joining the Boca office of Burke, Bosselman and Freivogel, a Chicago-based law firm.
