

Lipman to open law practice

Kenneth W. Lipman will form his own law practice with offices in the Interstate Plaza Building, 1499 W. Palmetto Park Road, Boca Raton.

Lipman will concentrate his firm's efforts toward Federal Criminal Law and Criminal Litigation. He is available for speaking engagements on such topics as "White Collar Crime in South Florida" and "How Corporations Handle Criminal Investigations of their Employees."

The trial lawyer has lost only one of the 40 jury trials he has handled as a Federal Prosecutor, and was most recently involved in the well-publicized case surrounding the former Sunrise mayor, John Lomelo. Lipman represented City Council President John Montgomery, the only defendant to be acquitted in the case after a three-week trial.
