Ironhorse Classic raises cash for Cities in Schools

The recent Ironhorse Classic, a scramble golf tournament at Ironhorse Golf and Country Club in West Palm Beach, raised about $10,000 for Cities in Schools of Palm Beach County Inc.

Cities in Schools is a private, non-profit organization that works in partnership with the public school system, social service agencies and business organizations to prevent students from dropping out of school.

BCC benefits, too

Broward Community College student athletes also benefited from a recent golf tournament.

The fourth annual AV-MED Managed Care/Broward Community College Foundation Golf Classic at the Crystal Lake Country Club in Pompano Beach raised about $35,000 to benefit athletic scholarships.

Teacher to be judge

Judith Beiner, a teacher at Spanish River High School in Boca Raton, has been appointed a regional judge for the 1991 National Council of Teachers of English Achievement Awards in Writing.

About 800 high school seniors are cited for excellence in writing and are recommended to colleges and universities for admission and financial aid, if needed, through this nationally recognized competition.
